

Pariplay gets go-ahead to enter Pennsylvania after obtaining license

August 16, 2022

Fourth US accreditation a major boost for leading aggregator's ambitions image

LUXEMBOURG, Aug. 16, 2022 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- NeoGames S.A. (Nasdaq: NGMS) subsidiary Pariplay, the leading aggregator and content provider, has been awarded its Pennsylvania license as it continues to grow its footprint in North America.

The Interactive Gaming Manufacturer License, awarded by the Pennsylvania Gaming Control Board (PGCB), is the fourth license secured by the provider in the US, following Michigan, West Virginia and New Jersey.

Pennsylvania license enables Pariplay to offer innovative, feature-packed content from Wizard Games, as well as a wide variety of aggregated third-party games, to players across the Keystone state through its Fusion® platform.

Pariplay's Fusion® product is the most flexible aggregation platform in the market and features leading titles and localised content from 80+ vendors, offering more than 13,000 titles.

Adrian Bailey, Managing Director at Pariplay, said: "We continually strive to expand in key markets, and Pennsylvania is one of the major emerging territories in the United States.

"Receiving our fourth license in the US is an important landmark for us and we're eager to expand commercially in our newest market. It is one that has great potential both for Pariplay and also our future partners."

Lawrence Hanlin, Head of Compliance at Pariplay, said: "We pride ourselves on working extremely hard to study the regulations and compliance to enter markets swiftly and seamlessly, and Pennsylvania is yet another example of that.

"We're very happy to receive this license, which will help serve our operators partners and their players with a huge range of locally appealing content."
